PBS Western Reserve wins five awards in the 43rd annual Telly Awards

LINES BROKEN: THE STORY OF MARION MOTLEY wins gold in Television—Documentary category

Kent, OH – Thursday, May 26, 2022 -- PBS Western Reserve announced today that two of its productions received five awards in the 43rd Annual Telly Awards. LINES BROKEN: THE STORY OF MARION MOTLEY was a gold winner in the Television—Documentary category and also won a silver award and a bronze award. BLACK COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME: JOURNEY TO CANTON won a silver award and a bronze. Both productions premiered exclusively on PBS Western Reserve (WNEO / WEAO) in February 2021. They were co-directed by James Waters of Waters Media LLC, and Shaun Horrigan of Fog City Multimedia LLC. Following is the awards list:

LINES BROKEN: THE STORY OF MARION MOTLEY
• Gold award, Television—Documentary
• Silver award, Television—Social Impact
• Bronze award, Television—Biography

BLACK COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME: JOURNEY TO CANTON
• Silver award, Television—Cultural
• Bronze award, Television—Museums & Galleries

The Telly Awards honors excellence in video and television across all screens and is judged by leaders from video platforms, television, streaming networks, production companies and including Adobe, Netflix, Dow Jones, Duplass Brothers Productions, Complex Networks, Jennifer Garner, A&E Networks, Hearst Media, Nickelodeon, ESPN Films, RYOT, Partizan and Vimeo.
“Now, more than ever, it is necessary to celebrate video work that reflects the top tier of our industry, such as PBS Western Reserve,” said Telly Awards Executive Director Sabrina Dridje. “This year’s submissions reflect an industry that has returned to the important work of storytelling, one that has returned with a new perspective that values innovation, agility, equity and tenacious creativity.”

“PBS Western Reserve is always looking for meaningful and important stories to tell,” said President and CEO Trina Cutter. “After brainstorming content ideas with talented producers James Waters and Shaun Horrigan, we stepped back and let them pursue their craft, which led to two outstanding documentaries.” Both productions are available for free viewing on demand at PBSWesternReserve.org.

The announcement of this year’s Telly Awards caps a yearlong celebration of creators producing work with a new point of view and a refreshed creativity, reflecting an ever-changing landscape emerging from the difficulties and opportunities from the last few years. Last year, The Telly Awards attracted more than 12,000 entries from top video content producers including Netflix, Jennifer Garner, HBO Latin America, Microsoft, RadicalMedia, Condé Nast, Adobe, Nickelodeon and Partizan.
