By Nature's Design

EXPLORING OUR NATIVE WILDLIFE

The first season of PBS Western Reserve's original series BY NATURE'S DESIGN comes to a close with a finale episode that captures the beauty of local wetlands across different seasons and tackles the risks posed by climate change.

"I want to thank our members for making the show possible and for attending our screenings. It's been a joy to make a series that's about our local environment and talks to local experts," said series creator Sophia Gillespie. "I'm excited to continue exploring the science behind our region's unique scenery in future seasons."

For more information about wetlands and BY NATURE'S DESIGN: EXPLORING OUR NATIVE WILDLIFE, visit PBSWesternReserve.org/by-natures-design.

Can't wait for the broadcast premiere? Stream full seasons of “Miss Scarlet” and WHITSTABLE PEARL today with a PBS Western Reserve Passport subscription.

Masterpiece, Miss Scarlet, Season 6

Sundays at 8 PM beginning Jan. 11

Repeats Mondays at 1 AM beginning Jan. 12 and Thursdays at 5 PM beginning Jan. 15

Airs on Fusion on Sundays at noon beginning Jan. 18

It's uncharted territory for Eliza and Alexander as they navigate their evolving relationship. Their relationship has grown, but now there are new secrets and challenges to face, not to mention vexing mysteries to solve. An expert at solving crimes yet a novice at love, can Eliza balance her professional and personal worlds?

Bookish

Sundays at 10 PM beginning Jan. 11

Repeats Mondays at 3 AM beginning Jan. 12

Airs on Fusion on Sundays at 2 PM beginning Jan. 18

In post-war London, Gabriel Book, a literary enthusiast and bookseller, combines his day job with his favorite hobby — helping solve knotty murder cases. Although happily married to his best friend, Trottie, Book is a gay man at a time when homosexuality was illegal. When a new assistant, Jack, arrives at the bookshop, it soon becomes clear his appointment wasn't as random as it at first seems.

Whitstable Pearl

Fridays at 9 PM beginning Jan. 16

Repeats Saturdays at 2 AM beginning Jan. 17 and Sundays at 5 PM beginning Jan. 18

Airs on Fusion on Wednesdays at 8 PM beginning Jan. 21

Follow single mother Pearl as she pursues her dream to start a private detective agency, which she runs from her family restaurant in the coastal English town of Whitstable. Drawn by her caring nature, locals flock to her with all kinds of cases. But when a friend dies suspiciously, Pearl finds herself in conflict with a gruff new cop in town, DCI Mike McGuire.

Civil Rights Stories

PBS Western Reserve invites you to honor Martin Luther King Jr. Day by exploring the civil rights stories that shaped communities across our nation from school desegregation in Ohio to church integration in Maryland.

Training for Freedom

Sunday, Jan. 18, at 2 PM

Repeats Wednesday, Jan. 28, at 3:30 AM

In 1890, Mississippi had 190,000 registered Black voters. By 1966, that number was reduced to 2,000 due to a complicated voter registration process. TRAINING FOR FREEDOM captures the transformational story of how idealistic college students and Black activist teachers came together at the height of the civil rights movement, in a small Midwestern town, for a two-week training session aimed at registering Black Mississippians to vote.

The Lincoln School Story

Sunday, Jan. 18, at 2:30 PM

Discover the little-known fight for school desegregation led by a handful of Ohio mothers and their children in 1954.

In the wake of Brown v. Board of Education, school districts nationwide were mandated to integrate. But when African American mothers in Hillsboro, Ohio, tried to enroll their children in the local, historically white schools, the school board refused to comply. Five mothers and their children took the school board to court and eventually their children became the first Black students to attend a high-quality local elementary school.

Finding Fellowship

Sunday, Jan. 18, at 3 PM

Airs on Fusion on Monday, Jan. 19, at 8 PM

FINDING FELLOWSHIP captures how the seeds for potential reconciliation were planted in the same fields slave masters once terrorized. This film shares how one community came together in the wake of Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination and offers an example of how communities can lean on their shared heritage for progress.
